

Toni Blockburger is a graduate of Montclair State University where she earned her bachelors degree graduating with honors in Dance Education. She has been training since the age of 2 and has studied ballet, tap, jazz, contemporary, and modern. She began competing at the age of 10 and has won numerous top awards at regional and national competitions on the east coast. At Montclair, she has studied ballet, modern, and contemporary, and has had the privilege of performing in works by Martha Graham, Bill T Jones, Alwin Nikolais, and Nancy Lushington to name a few. She was most recently received the Maryann Peins Dance Scholarship for excellence in dance education, senior dance education award, and graduated with honors from the National Honors Society of Dance Arts. Toni is looking forward to sharing her love of dance with her students this season at LDAD.
